THE TICKET OF LEAVE MAN.

The 'ONDON TIMES, in speaking of this great moral drama, a cations a fact to which the 'provincial press of Great Bri, 'Un and Ireland has given confirmation.

A clerk, 'b had also-onded from Liverpool with 22.503, the property of his employers, and after visiting many paces, arrive. at Birmingham about five o'clock and after taking some re 'reshments went to the theatre, to wisite away an hour. 's life happened, the piece which was being performed on the, coasion of this visit was THE 'I CKRET OF LEAVE MAN.

and the guilty man a went to have drawn a moral from the representation; for w cen the some in which the interview between Hawkshaw, the 'detective and the 'Ticket of Leave Man' took place, Parker, the clerk, became's an affected that he went out of the theatre, so three envelopes, and sent $1.500 hack to his employer.

Oht the prophetic vision of 'Thakapeare,' 'I have heard
That guilty creatures, sitting at a play Haw by the very cum using of the scent,
Been struck so to the a 'Vil, that presently They have proclaimed to 'the malefactions.'
